MY WISH FOR EVERYONE

... is: "may you achieve automatic drive in 1974 without getting shiftless."

WORDY REGULATION

... is the title of a small piece sent to me by someone. It reads: "A lot of people say that government can do it better. The Ten Commandments contain 297 words. Lincoln's famous Gettysburg Address contains 266 words. Whereas the Declaration of Independence used a mere 300 words in the Declaration itself. However, a recent U. S. Directive to regulate the price of cabbage contains 26,911 words."

Now, can't you just imagine how many words the government has used on the present regulation [?] of the energy crisis!

WHICH BRINGS ME

... to a sore point. I see Mr. Simon has had his string pulled again by Mr. Nixon and has changed his allocation policies on gasoline again. This makes the umpteenth time he has done so.

Now, he says the airlines will get 95 percent of their allocation for 1972 and service stations will be cut back to 80 percent.

Here again the average American gets it in the neck. There are millions more Americans who are forced to depend on an automobile for their very livelihood than there are airline passengers.

Cut out the luxury trips by air and the number of essential passengers would dwindle to a precious few. But literally millions of Americans must use their cars each day to get back and forth to work. And we South Texans know that many times "work" is a far distance from our front door.

Now, I am not against the airlines. And I certainly hate to see thousands of their employees fired or laid off. But nowhere have you seen the figures on the number of service station attendants, managers and owners over the United States who no longer have a job because of the fuel shortage. And that figure will get worse when the new regulations go into effect. Not to mention all those who will be without work simply because they can't get there for the lack of a gasoline line.

I cannot recall in all the mouthings made by Mr. Nixon or Mr. Simon where they have urged Americans to curtail their airline travel. They certainly did not suggest a "planeless Sunday" as they did on automobile gasoline. Every airline I know is still flying on Sunday, but just try to find a service station open on that day if you want to or are forced to make a long trip.

Typical Nixon vacillation has also produced another situation which I consider deplorable, but one which the Administration is famous for, protection of big business. That is the hoarding of millions of gallons of fuel, gasoline, fuel oil and distillate, by big business. They are not necessarily hoarding it for their own use, but to use as "bartering" material with other big companies.

And who suffers? You guessed it. The little man who has to depend on the corner service station for the gasoline he needs to get back and forth to work.

The solution? I don't think it will be the energy bill Congress just pressed through. The elite members of that sanctimonious group over reacted -- why is it they always over or under react and never hit the middle -- and put into law some stipulations that can never work. So I feel the American public will just have to put on some more clothes, lock up the old car and sit in a cold home more this coming year.

THE YEAR 1974

... should pose enough problems for us Hondoans to work up a little extra heat over if we allow ourselves to become concerned enough.

Perhaps an early "heat producer" will be the proposed bond issue the City Fathers have said they favor looking into.

At their December meeting the Council mentioned three projects they considered should be included on a bond issue -- new sewage treatment facilities, a new library, and a sprinkler system for the golf course.

And although these three projects are needed in their own right, I am not so sure this is the time for a bond issue. Times are too uncertain to load ourselves with more taxes without knowing for certain whether or not our taxable income base won't diminish due to various crisis during 1974.

Of the three proposed projects the most essential is the sewage treatment facility. I don't know that we can get by without this one for long. But, crowded as the present library is and as much as we would all like to see a new library, I cannot classify it as absolutely essential.

And as far as the golf course sprinkler system is concerned, I don't believe even the Hondo Golf Course Association members were proposing a bond issue when they brought up the subject. All they wanted to do was negotiate a loan somewhere and pay it back over a number of years.

I'm a golfer, and I realize the golf course does a tremendous job of bringing in "outside money." It is a vital part of our recreation picture and a new sprinkler system would help it to remain one of the finest little golf courses in South Texas. But I cannot see that it is essential enough to be included on a bond issue.

What I do think is this is the time for careful consideration for any new programs and some re-evaluation of present ones. I am not saying we do not need a bond issue for certain programs but let's give the entire picture a careful study.

LOCAL FARMERS

... are happy I am sure to hear that farm fuel for 1974 will be based on annual rather than monthly allocations. Or so says the Grain Sorghum Producers Association.

At a December 18 Washington meeting, it was decided farmers may receive up to 125 percent of the fuel they used in 1972, providing, and here is a big catch, it is available.

Anyway, I'm sure Floyd Smith at the local ASCS office will have all the information.

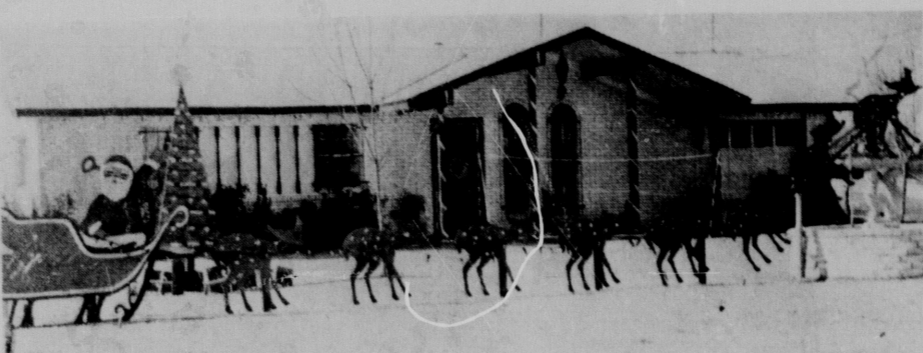

And then if we can talk the weatherman into giving us some rain, our people might be able to use the fuel.

DST coming whether we like it or not Hold on to your watch-fobs, folks. Daylight Savings Time is back by popular (?) demand.

The controversial measure, recently installed by Congress on a year-round basis to conserve energy, will be in effect Sunday morning.

So, the thing to do is to move your watches and clocks up an hour Saturday night.

The old memory crutch for clock-turning used to say 'spring forward and fall backward,' but that's no help this time. How about 'stumble forward in the 8 a.m. darkness'?

Amanda Jean Balencia, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Balencia of Natalia, became the first baby of 1974 to be delivered at Medina Memorial Hospital.

She weighed in at a healthy eight pounds, 5 1/2 ounces.

And since he was not worried about fuel shortages, the stork arrived promptly at 9:21 a.m. Tuesday, January 1.

Congratulations to Amanda Jean and her parents.

North Carolina letter gets Texas information in round about way

This is a tale of one letter going a long way around and through many hands but finally providing the writer with the information he desired, and then some.

The tale began early in December when Prof. William H. Beezley of North Carolina State University sought some information, and in less than a month, Dr. O. B. Taylor of Hondo, who doesn't like to see loose ends lying around, had him completely satisfied. But satisfaction came in a round about way.

Beezley wrote his first letter to the reference librarian at the Hondo Public Library seeking information on a Blocker family that had lived in Hondo many years back.

Librarian Lottie Maw gave the letter to Mrs. Lillian Porter at the Hondo Chamber of Commerce to include in her Chamber Corner. She brought it to the editor's attention and they decided to use it as a Letters from the Mailbox item.

Doc saw the letter in the December 6 issue of the Anvil Herald and came by to say he "knew the Blocker family and in fact had gone to school with one of the Blocker boys in question."

The good doctor went on to say he thought one of the Blocker boys lived in San Antonio and he was going to get in touch with him and give him a clipping of Prof. Beezley's letter.

Citizen voices are needed on Constitution

Texans can still have a voice in their new constitution according to Rep. John Poerner of Hondo.

"Every person who is interested in offering suggestions about the proposed constitution is urged to do so," Rep. Poerner said.

In fact, those wishing to voice an opinion may do so by calling Rep. Poerner's offices in Hondo (426-3112) or Austin (475-4583) or by writing him in Austin or Hondo.

Rep. Poerner also urged all citizens to obtain explanatory material pertaining to the proposed constitution in order to become familiar with the issues.

Copies of the constitution proposed by the Constitutional

Revision Commission may be obtained by writing the CRC at Suite 300, Commodore Perry Bldg., Austin, Texas 78711 or by calling toll free 1-800-292-9600.

A 226-page report, "A New Constitution for Texas: Text, Explanation, Commentary," is also available at the CRC headquarters for $2.50. The report includes a section-by-section explanation of each provision in the new proposed constitution.

"It would be $2.50 well spent," Rep. Poerner said. "And once you read it-or even if you don't-let me know your feelings on this all-important document."

Green throws hat into 45th ring

Jim Green, 33 year old San Marcos businessman, announced today that he would seek the Democratic nomination for State Representative from the 45th Legislative District.

In announcing his candidacy, Green stated that "the strong support given me by all those who voted and worked for me in the 1972 primary has encouraged me to again seek election as this district's representative."

Presently manager of Colloquium Books, Green is a member of both the San Marcos Charter Revision Commission and the San Marcos Industrial Development Commission. He earned both bachelors and masters degrees from Southwest Texas State University and taught American History at SWTU, Angelo State University, and Schreiner Institute.

Green further stated that the 45th District must maintain its high level of effective influence in the State Legislature.

"Representative John Poerner, now seeking a Congressional seat, has, overall, served our district well," Green noted. "He has worked hard and gained the confidence of state leaders. I feel his support for crucial legislation, especially reform bills, was highly praiseworthy."

Green stressed that in the face of inflation and energy shortages it is even more important than usual that state expenditures be carefully watched. "Our tax dollars should be spent as wisely as possible," he said.

"While some issues have changed since my last campaign," Green noted "the basic need for competent, honest representation never lessens. I feel certain that I can provide the high quality representation demanded by the people of the 45th District. And I sincerely hope my campaign will merit their confidence and their support."

Blood Drive successful

"Hondoans gave tremendous response to the Blood Drive conducted on December 17 and 18," say drive coordinators Jim and Frances Prenzler.

A total of 389 persons signed up in advance and 20 walked in to contribute blood and 287 pints were taken.

"Rejections were higher than normal," Prenzler said, "mainly due to low iron."

But all in all the drive officials feel they received superb response from the people of Hondo and its immediate area, and many people turned in tremendous work.

"Blood Services hope to have another drive in about six months," Prenzler said, "and we feel the response will be even better."

He did just that, and in addition wrote Prof. Beezley to tell him about it.

Two days later he received a letter from V. H. Blocker in San Antonio which said in part: "... many thanks for your letter of December 7 enclosing a clipping from the Hondo Anvil Herald relative to the desire of Professor Beezley to obtain a biographic data pertaining to my brother Bill and myself. I shall be glad to write to Prof. Beezley."

Now, that was fine and just what Doc had in mind. But can you imagine his delight when he received the following letter from Prof. Beezley in North Carolina:

"Dear Doctor Taylor: "Thank you so much for your letter of December 7. I was very glad to receive the information you sent me about W. Blocker's early education. Thanks also for your letter to V. H. Blocker. I have since received a letter from him with a good deal of information about his career in the diplomatic service. Your assistance was most helpful. Sincerely yours, William H. Beezley, Assistant Professor of History."

And thus ended the tale of the information that was wanted in North Carolina and was provided in Texas through the help of several persons.

Citizen voices are needed on Constitution

Texans can still have a voice in their new constitution according to Rep. John Poerner of Hondo.

"Every person who is interested in offering suggestions about the proposed constitution is urged to do so," Rep. Poerner said.

In fact, those wishing to voice an opinion may do so by calling Rep. Poerner's offices in Hondo (426-3112) or Austin (475-4583) or by writing him in Austin or Hondo.

Copies of the constitution proposed by the Constitutional

Revision Commission may be obtained by writing the CRC at Suite 300, Commodore Perry Bldg., Austin, Texas 78711 or by calling toll free 1-800-292-9600.

A 226-page report, "A New Constitution for Texas: Text, Explanation, Commentary," is also available at the CRC headquarters for $2.50. The report includes a section-by-section explanation of each provision in the new proposed constitution.

"It would be $2.50 well spent," Rep. Poerner said. "And once you read it-or even if you don't-let me know your feelings on this all-important document."

Green further stated that the 45th District must maintain its high level of effective influence in the State Legislature.

Green stressed that in the face of inflation and energy shortages it is even more important than usual that state expenditures be carefully watched. "Our tax dollars should be spent as wisely as possible," he said.

"While some issues have changed since my last campaign," Green noted "the basic need for competent, honest representation never lessens. I feel certain that I can provide the high quality representation demanded by the people of the 45th District. And I sincerely hope my campaign will merit their confidence and their support."

to me that their product [of course he would classify the word with their product] was mentioned in U. S. News and World Report when it used it to say "King Faisal sees himself first of all as the protector of Moslem and holy places, not only in Mecca and Medina . . ."

Naturally, the local product was named after Medina County. So how many other places, besides the Middle East, have the name Medina?

Charles Comingore did a little research and came up with several cities by the name: Medina, Michigan; Medina, New York; Medina, North Dakota; Medina, Ohio; Medina, Tennessee; Medina, Texas; Medina, Washing-ton; and Medina, Wisconsin.

Do you know of others?

BUSINESSMEN

. . . in Hondo more than likely would agree with a statement made years ago by the late Marshall Field of Chicago.

John Schubert says he worked for Mr. Field on his first job back in 1913, and he passed this quote on to us:

"Those who enter to buy, support me. Those who come in to flatter, please me. Those who come in to complain, teach me how I may please others, so more will come in. Only those who are displeased, but do not complain to me, hurt me, for they refuse me the permission to correct my errors, and thus improve my service to all."

ANOTHER ITEM

. . . I would like to pass on to all businesses is this little poem found in a newsletter by Mrs. Doris [Floyd] Saathoff.

"The salmon lays a thousand eggs; The little hen but one,

"But the salmon doesn't cackle To tell what she has done.

"We ignore the salmon, The little hen we prize!

"Which illustrates to thoughtful minds, It pays to advertise."

WANTA SHAKE HANDS

. . . Johnny Rodriguez? Well, how about shaking hands with a guy who shook hands with the young on a recent afternoon!

City Manager Fritz Leinweber was returning to the office on east Highway 90 Tuesday when he saw a big Cadillac parked near the Hondo sign and a man outside taking a picture.

As is his usual custom, Fritz stopped to offer them some postcards, but by the time he stopped his pickup and got the cards, they were pulling away. He flagged them down and the driver got out and came back to the pickup.

Fritz explained why he stopped the car, the man thanked him and got back in the limousine and drove off with his three companions.

But before Fritz got even with HEB they stopped and flagged him down. The driver and two male passengers got out and approached the pickup.

"These men wanted to meet you," the driver said. And he proceeded to introduce Johnny Rodriguez and the other man.

Johnny took Fritz's name and address and said, "I want to send you something." They also said they appreciated the cards very much.

I don't know about Fritz, but I am enough of a Country and Western fan that I might not wash my hand for some time to come.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Lawrence:

Thanks so much for the terrific coverage your paper gave my art students on their entries in the 1973 Christmas Seal Poster Contest. I'm sure it did a lot to encourage them and give them the incentive they need to continue their efforts!

P. S. All sarcasm aside, these kids really deserved some recognition from the community for the extra time and hard work they put in on their posters-but by the time they are recognized, it will hardly qualify as news. Thanks anyway.

T-C predicts wet January

At last, word comes from Taylor-Chapman Weather Service that it's going to rain again after all.

It's been so dry, even the ball-point ink on Doc Taylor's note was getting skippy. But here it is, such as it is.

"After some ten months of ideal weather, fine rains, good crops, and over 50 inches of rainfall we came to a sudden halt about Nov. 1 and no rain of any consequence came for two months.

"Now, with the start of a new year, let's start with 'wet' prospects. We will have four early morning moon changes in January and we are predicting a wet first month."

He then went on to note moon changes to occur at 6:36 a.m. January 8, 1:04 a.m. January 15, 5:02 a.m. January 23, and 1:39 a.m. January 31.

"We believe," ends the note.

We hope, Doc.

Car registration forms to be mailed soon

AUSTIN -- Owners of some 8.4 million motor vehicles in Texas will have some important mail coming their way early in January.

Registration renewal application will be put in the mail shortly after the holiday season by the Motor Vehicle Division of the Texas Highway Department.

The same quick and easy method made possible by modern computer technology will be in effect this year as it has been in the last few years.

Vehicle owners can save time that used to be spent waiting in long lines at county tax offices throughout the state by ordering their 1974 license plates by mail.

All that must be done is to send the entire three-part application by mail to the county tax assessor collector in the owner's home county, enclosing the registration fee plus $1 for each vehicle to cover handling and mailing.

There are three things to remember:

1. Leave the three-part form intact. Don't separate the three parts.

2. Mail it to the county tax office in your home county. (Mailing it to the Highway Department will only delay getting your 1974 license plates.)

3.

Be sure to include the registration fee, plus $1 for each vehicle for postage and handling.

You may apply for license plates by mail after January 1. However, county tax offices won't mail plates until after February 1. Owners should allow at least 30 days from the time they apply for the license plates to be returned.

In-person registrations will begin at county tax offices and, in some counties, at substations on February 1. Even though the automated registration application procedures have speeded up the process, waiting lines will grow progressively longer as the April 1 deadline approaches.

by Edna McDade

One of those 18-kt. yellow gold watches, with a dial of real peacock feathers was not among my Christmas gifts. The advertised price was only $1650, plus, and I doubt that it would mark time any better than my trusty little self-winder that usually manages to get me wherever I'm supposed to be at a given time.

Excerpts, verbatim, from Letters to Santa as written by some of the primary pupils in this neck of the woods: "I hope I had a bumpa pultabul and a tabul to eat on and lots to eat and candy . . . Ples bring a hieway deportment so I can learn to make rides . . . I guess a risk wotch and a coat with a fury cap and a slad becos it mite snow . . . I like a holowin kostum and a maks for trik or tret and a baby doll with her one swiminful . . . Say, how is old Rudolf's nose gettin by now? Give him some kelenex and bring me a bike, please . . . Oh, I hope your Elfs are still work for you so you can bring me lots of toys and a ball . . . Just fix up my littl brother and little kids like that because I am already 7 years and I dont need so much for fun . . ."

One sure thing about S. Claus. What he reads he does his best to supply, subject to availability, of course.

Although I spent less than 48 hours in Hondo, it was a pleasant visit and all too short. En route home, we saw ICE between Devine and Pleasanton. Two hay barns marked the site of an irrigation system which evidently had kept on the job all the night before. Frozen ruffles fringed a long ditch and the spray had festooned the barbed wire fence with icicles several inches long.

Something for that area to remember, come the good old summertime with the thermometer registering high 90's in the shade -- and no shade.

Until I came to this city of gulf breezes and sunshine [most of the time] I had not realized that Hondo was so "far north".

Since 1887, Corpus Christi has only five snowy days. And, this December, the "Sparkling City by the Sea" observed its 48th consecutive Christmas without snow. In fact snow fell on Christmas Day only twice, in 1918 and again in 1922 when it was reported as "only a trace, but how the kids loved it!"

Texas plans for the forthcoming A R Bicentennial in 1976 seem to be gathering speed along the pace of The Little Engine That Could: "We think we can . . . we thought we could . . . we know we can . . . we knew we could."

In 1913 newspapers were filled with enthusiastic plugs for the Panama-Pacific International Exposition, held in San Francisco. Texas agricultural interests had as their slogan "Let's Show 'em What We Have." Crops with impressive totals, sixty years ago, included Cotton, rice, potatoes, tobacco, corn and many others.

"Texas is hustling and will keep on hustling," read one big ad.

Our Bicentennial Brags might not be all agricultural but 1976 could afford a fine opportunity to tell visitors "What we got is what you'll see!"

"For the wispy-waisted," reads a current fashion note" sashes are reappearing and mighty pretty ones, too."

It just so happens that the Hondo Anvil Herald recorded a similar trend for its "fashionable lady readers" in 1913 and here are some of the notes, copies verbatim:

"One of the most advanced models in afternoon wear is a V-neck, long sleeve, floor-length, wrapped around the ankles creation of lace over white charmeuse, with a knee-length sash of black velvet ribbon.

"Also much in vogue this season is the graceful Watteau sash, attached to the shoulder within 6 or 8 inches of the hemline where it is looped up. The Prelate sash encircles the waist, one end thrown over stock-fashion to hand straight . . . The Japanese Obi is also quite good . . . Other eye-catchers include short bolero-fronted habit-basque Louis XV coatees and extreme short cutaway coats."

How's your crop of New Year Resolutions coming along? I think I shall choose this bit of advice offered by Alexander Pope, long before I ever heard about him: "How active springs the mind/ That leaves the load of yesterday behind."

Now, if the springs don't rust out!

The third annual Charity Walk was held Saturday, Dec. 22, by Saint John's C.Y.O. of Hondo. Proceeds will be donated to the Emergency Ambulance Program of Medina County for needed equipment.

Many energetic people from Devine joined Hondo for the twenty-mile walk. Participants congregated in front of the County Courthouse just before dawn; Rev. George Stueb- ben, pastor and youth moderator of Saint John's Parish, and Bud Guinn, Medina County Emergency Ambulance Coordin- ator, were on hand to bid the walkers a safe, happy, and successful journey.

The hikers started on their way shortly after 7 a.m. During the first few miles the walking had to be pretty fast to keep warm in the early morning chill. Nevertheless, there were some cold ears, fingers, toes, and noses. The coming of the sun was cheered by everyone, and coats, scarfs, and sweaters were quickly loaded onto the "first-aid" truck driven by Margarito Her- nandez.

From then on it was a race to the end; the first walkers reached the finish line in seven hours, and the last took only eight hours to complete their goal. The group was then driven back to the City Park for refreshments.

PUBLIC NOTICES BECAUSE THE PEOPLE MUST KNOW

NOTICE AFFORDING OPPORTUNITY FOR PUBLIC HEARING CORRIDOR AND DESIGN

The Texas Highway Department is planning the construction of a section of F.M. Highway 2676, in the central part of Medina County, beginning
at the end of existing F.M.
2676, 4.3 miles northeast of S.H. 173, and extending to the northeast approximately 3.5 miles.

The proposed construction will provide a typical low volume, Farm to Market Road design consisting of a two-lane, 20 foot wide, asphalt-surfaced roadway. The proposed route generally follows an
existing county road;
however, several sections
are on new location. The usual and minimum right
of way width is 120 feet.
The proposed project is
not anticipated to require
any relocation of families,
individuals or businesses.

Maps and other drawings showing the proposed location and geometric
design, environmental studies and other information about the proposed project are on file and

available for inspection
and copying at the
Resident Engineer's Office
at Hondo, Texas. Also, the drawings showing the proposed geometric design have been placed on file at the office of the County Judge of Medina County.

Information about the State's Relocation Assistance Program, the benefits and services for displacees and the relocation assistance office as well as information about the tentative schedules for acquisition of right of way and construction can be obtained at the Resident Engineer's Office.

Any interested citizen may request that a public hearing be held covering the social, economic and environmental effects of the proposed location and design for this highway project by delivering a written request to the Resident Engineer's Office
on or before January 24, 1974.

In the event such a request is received, a public hearing will be scheduled and adequate notice will be published about the date and location of the hearing.

Medina County, beginning
at the end of existing F.M.
2676, 4.3 miles northeast
of S.H. 173, and extending to the northeast approximately 3.5 miles.

The proposed construction will provide a typical
low volume, Farm to

roadway. The proposed
route generally follows an
existing county road;
however, several sections
are on new location. The
usual and minimum right

The proposed project is
not anticipated to require
any relocation of families,
individuals or businesses.

Maps and other drawings showing the proposed location and geometric
design, environmental
studies and other information about the proposed project are on file and

available for inspection
and copying at the
Resident Engineer's Office
at Hondo, Texas. Also, the drawings showing the
proposed geometric design

Owls beat Orange 53-50

It was a break-even holiday series last week for the Owl basketball team as they played San Antonio Antonian close but lost 70-62; then took their second district victory against no losses in a 53-50 win over Medina Valley.

Friday night (tomorrow), the Owls will travel to Carrizo Springs for their third loop encounter. Action begins with the Freshman game at 5 p.m., followed by B-Team and Varsity games.

Next Tuesday, it will be Antonian again in the final non-district game on the Owl schedule. This time the Owls will go to San Antonio to try to even up the score against the TCIL team.

The Owls were handed their second defeat Thursday night in a non-district game with Antonian High School of San Antonio.

The team outplayed the Owls in the third quarter to win 70-62. At halftime the Owls were still close at 30-27, but in the third period Antonian scored 18 to 8 for Hondo.

Leading Hondo scorer was Doug Helvey with 19 points. He was followed by improving Mike Groff with 16 points, Brian Finger with 10, Paul Richards with 7, Ray Garcia with 6 and Tony Hackbeil with 4.

Greg DeWinne led everyone with his 23 points for the night.

Friday night Medina Valley chipped away at a 7-point halftime deficit to close within three points of Hondo, but the Owls outlasted them and took the win, 53-50.

Leading 27-20 at the midpoint, Hondo relied on hot-handed Paul Richards' 24 points to carry the game, as the next-highest Owl scorer was Doug Helvey with only 12 points.

Medina Valley ran into similar problems as Mario Garza led them with 23 points, followed by Lopez with only 11.

Other Hondo scorers were Mike Groff with 8 points, Brian Finger with 7, and Ray Garcia with 2.

Rounding out the scoring for Medina Valley were DeCock with 6 points, Keller with 4, Lange with 4, and Bendele with 2.

B-TEAM

The Owl B-Team recovered from its own loss to Antonian to whip the Orangemen Jr. Varsity 50-36. Leading the Owl effort in that game were Gabe Lopez with 16 points, and David Knowles and Tobin Tilley both with 10 points.

The B-team will be in action Friday night against Carrizo Springs.

FROSH

Hondo's Freshman basketball team won over Medina Valley's Frosh 48-43. That game was only the second of the season for the Hondo team. They will also be in action in Carrizo.

ANOTHER BIG 'UN . . . for W. J. [Sarge] Ney of Hondo was this 9-point buck he killed on his place December 20. The buck weighed 120 pounds and had an 18-inch spread. No lie — State will honor good fishermen Got a fish you're proud of?

As of Jan. 1 the Parks and Wildlife Department starts a new "Certificate of Fishing Merit" program which will recognize every fisherman in the state who catches a "trophy" among some 14 species of saltwater and freshwater fish.

In return for a little back-patting, department inland and coastal fisheries biologists will obtain some insights into Texas' lakes, rivers and bays.

The fish experts are out to find which bodies of water in Texas consistently produce large fish.

Not to be confused with the Parks and Wildlife Department's Texas State Fish Records which single out only the biggest of saltwater and freshwater fish, the new award program is designed to recognize everyone who catches, for instance, a largemouth bass over eight pounds.

The department wants to know about all large fish, not just ones which break existing records.

According to coastal fisheries administrator Terry Leary, bays and lakes which consistently yield large gamefish are "healthy" bodies of water where good habitat and abundant food promote rapid growth and good reproduction.

"The first indication of something being wrong is the lack of good reproduction and good growth," said Leary. "The causes of this can often be traced to overabundant stunted sunfish which prey on gamefish young and compete with gamefish for food and space."

By recognizing good fishing spots, Leary and inland fisheries administrator Lonnie Peters have a toe-hold in the first step to making all of Texas lakes and bays just as productive.

Here are the rules of the new program:

--All fish entered must be taken by pole and line in Texas waters after Jan. 1, 1974.

--The entrant must have hooked, fought and landed the fish.

--All fish entered must be measured for total length and weighed on an inscribed scale certified for use by the Texas Department of Agriculture. A statement of weight signed by a witness must also accompany the application. A photo of the fish is not necessary to be awarded a Certificate of Fishing Merit but remains a criterion for record breakers in The Texas State Fish Records.

Only the following species of fish weighing more than the listed minimum weights will be considered for a Certificate of Fishing Merit: Spotted sea trout (speckled trout)-7lbs.; Redfish (from the Gulf of Mexico)-25 lbs.; Redfish (from bays)-14 lbs.; Black drum-35 lbs.; Southern flounder 6 lbs.; Large-mouth bass-8 lbs.; Crappie (black and white)-3 lbs. 8 oz.; White bass-4 lbs.; Channel catfish-15 lbs.; Blue catfish-40 lbs.; Flathead catfish-60 lbs.; Walleye-12 lbs.; Striped bass (freshwater and saltwater)-20 lbs.; Rainbow trout-2 lbs.

Minimum weights on three of the fish -- walleye, striped bass and rainbow trout -- are subject to being raised in the future as the introduced populations of these fish get older and larger.

Already, the 12-pound minimum on walleye is more than the existing state record of 8 pounds, 14 ounces.

Parks and Wildlife Department officials are making a distinction between Gulf and bay redfish because the fish usually leave the bays after they reach a certain size.

Even though trotlines might account for some large fish, notably catfish and redfish, the awards program is limited to pole and line fishermen to keep it aimed at the majority of sport anglers.

Application forms for submitting entries in the new fishing award program will soon be available at all Parks and Wildlife Department offices and from bonded license deputies wherever hunting and fishing licenses are sold.

Scout recruiting drive termed successful

Governor Dolph Briscoe announced that the drive to recruit 50,000 new Boy Scouts in Texas has been reached and exceeded. The Governor said "I am very pleased that the goal was not only reached, but that it was reached several weeks before the deadline." The Governor stated "I'm told by the Boy Scout Office in Dallas that almost 60,000 boys have become scouts since mid-September."

The Governor was referring to a drive he launched on September 14 to recruit 50,000 new Boy Scouts in Texas by December 31.

1973. The program is called the Governor's Roundup for Scouting in Texas. During the Governor's Roundup, which ends very soon, every Cub pack, every Scout troop, and every Explorer post was asked to open their doors and invite every eligible non-member in their neighborhoods to join them.

Briscoe commented, "These boys are the ones who don't make the headlines, but they are our leaders of tomorrow."

Governor Briscoe has been identified with scouting for many years. He is presently a member of the Boy Scouts' Concho Valley Council's executive board and on the board of directors of the South Central Region which serves boy scouts in five states. Governor Briscoe explained, "I am extremely proud of every new scout and of every person who encouraged young boys to become either a Cub Scout or Boy Scout."

Briscoe also praised Brigadier General James M. Rose, the Governor's Special Assistant for Youth Affairs, and Kirk Henry, Director of Support Services of the Dallas Boy Scout Office. Both men have helped with the Governor's Roundup.

Winter dove season starts Saturday Jan. 5

Winter dove season will be on again Saturday morning, January 5.

After a successful experimental cold-weather dove season last year, the Parks and Wildlife Department has decided to continue the program which gives Texans a crack at those late-arriving, plump northern mourning doves.

The season runs through January 20. Daily bag limit is 10 birds, with possession limited to twenty.

For those hardy souls known as wintertime dove hunters, the Parks and Wildlife Department is making three of its wildlife management areas available for public dove hunting.

The Pat Mayse Area in East Texas near Paris will be open Jan. 5-20.

Farther to the south in somewhat warmer climes the Chaparral Area in Dimmit and LaSalle Counties reopens to dove hunting Jan. 5-6 and 19-20.

The Black Gap Area in Brewster County will be open Jan. 5-6 and 12-13.

At each area a $1 fee per hunter will be charged for each day hunted.

Hunting hours are from noon to sunset and all hunters are welcome with no restrictions on the number of hunters or the number of return trips.

Bag limit is 10 birds per day with 20 doves in possession.

Parks and Wildlife Department officials are making a distinction between Gulf and bay redfish because the fish usually leave the bays after they reach a certain size.

Even though trotlines might account for some large fish, notably catfish and redfish, the awards program is limited to pole and line fishermen to keep it aimed at the majority of sport anglers.

Application forms for submitting entries in the new fishing award program will soon be available at all Parks and Wildlife Department offices and from bonded license deputies wherever hunting and fishing licenses are sold.

Scout recruiting drive termed successful

Governor Dolph Briscoe announced that the drive to recruit 50,000 new Boy Scouts in Texas has been reached and exceeded. The Governor said "I am very pleased that the goal was not only reached, but that it was reached several weeks before the deadline." The Governor stated "I'm told by the Boy Scout Office in Dallas that almost 60,000 boys have become scouts since mid-September."

The Governor was referring to a drive he launched on September 14 to recruit 50,000 new Boy Scouts in Texas by December 31, 1973.

The program is called the Governor's Roundup for Scouting in Texas. During the Governor's Roundup, which ends very soon, every Cub pack, every Scout troop, and every Explorer post was asked to open their doors and invite every eligible non-member in their neighborhoods to join them.

Briscoe commented, "These boys are the ones who don't make the headlines, but they are our leaders of tomorrow."

Governor Briscoe has been identified with scouting for many years. He is presently a member of the Boy Scouts' Concho Valley Council's executive board and on the board of directors of the South Central Region which serves boy scouts in five states. Governor Briscoe explained, "I am extremely proud of every new scout and of every person who encouraged young boys to become either a Cub Scout or Boy Scout."

Briscoe also praised Brigadier General James M. Rose, the Governor's Special Assistant for Youth Affairs, and Kirk Henry, Director of Support Services of the Dallas Boy Scout Office. Both men have helped with the Governor's Roundup.

Last season more deer were killed in Medina County than in any other Texas county.

How long since you killed a chachalaca? They can be hunted until January 16 in Cameron, Hidalgo, and Starr Counties. Season is closed here, however.

At 10-2, the Owl basketball team is ahead of its district-winning pace of a year ago. On January 4 of 1973, the Owls stood even at 4-4.

Winter dove season starts Saturday Jan. 5

Winter dove season will be on again Saturday morning, January 5.

After a successful experimental cold-weather dove season last year, the Parks and Wildlife Department has decided to continue the program which gives Texans a crack at those late-arriving, plump northern mourning doves.

The season runs through January 20. Daily bag limit is 10 birds, with possession limited to twenty.

For those hardy souls known as wintertime dove hunters, the Parks and Wildlife Department is making three of its wildlife management areas available for public dove hunting.

The Pat Mayse Area in East Texas near Paris will be open Jan. 5-20.

Farther to the south in somewhat warmer climes the Chaparral Area in Dimmit and LaSalle Counties reopens to dove hunting Jan. 5-6 and 19-20.

SWEETHEART
Football Sweetheart for the Devine Warhorses 1973-1974 team is Vicki Wallace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Wallace of Devine. Vicki is a senior and is serving her second year as a Devine High School cheerleader. Tri-Captains for the season were Walter McAllister, Richard Ehlinger and Rocky White.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tidball Sr. and Kenneth entertained with a family reunion and covered dish luncheon at their home Sunday in honor of her twin brothers, Floyd Pack from Fresno, Calif., and Lloyd Pack and family of San Antonio. Also present were her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Wooten and Sandra, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Wooten and family; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Wooten and Dean; Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Gotthardt and family; Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Tidball and family, San Antonio; Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Tidball and family. Mr. Pack returned to his home Monday morning.

Mrs. Dewayne Redus returned home Sunday night after visiting in Weatherford since Wednesday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Perkins. Mrs. Redus reported that her mother, who had had major surgery, was making a satisfactory recovery.

The Iven W. Thompsons motored to Bangs Friday afternoon for the night with her niece and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Everage. She joined them Saturday morning for a trip to Albany to attend the funeral of Mrs. Thompson's nephew, Obbie Thomas Cunningham, 65, who died Thursday.

Needle Club
Nine members of the Happy Valley Needle Club met Wednesday afternoon December 12 in the home of Mrs. Frank Neuman for their annual Christmas party. Gifts were placed under the beautifully decorated Christmas tree and drawn by number.

The next meeting will be on Wednesday afternoon January 9 at 2 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Iven W. Thompson.

Officers for the ensuing year will be elected.
